

HOGAN HALL

ABOUT HOGAN HALL

- Named for Joey B. Hogan, Executive Vice President
- 16-month project, Covenant's new facilities are located adjacent to one another on campus at Covenant's headquarters in Chattanooga.
- Hogan Hall comprises of 49,000 SQFT and includes 100 dormitory-style rooms, a lounge, a computer room, a fully covered patio with picnic tables and rocking chairs, and more.
- The 49,000-SQFT Orientation Training Center includes state-of-the-art learning facilities and classrooms for company orientations, trainings, and other events.

"Truck drivers have chosen a profession that a lot of people don't want to do; it is a critical role that keeps not only Covenant moving but our economy moving. No matter what is thrown at them, Covenant's dedicated team just keeps on driving. I am humbled and honored by this recognition, as it has been a pleasure to serve Covenant in various leadership roles," said Joey Hogan, Executive Vice President.

"This building demonstrates Covenant's total dedication to its loyal driving team, who deliver each and every day for our company and our customers. We look forward to this new chapter of Covenant's history beginning and welcome drivers, employees, and friends on campus to celebrate this momentous event with us."

– Covenant's President and COO, Paul Bunn.

"Our drivers are the lifeline of our organization. There isn't enough that can be said about the commitment and sacrifice they each make daily. The completion of these modern, secure, and comfortable facilities is one way that we can say 'thank you' to our drivers for their efforts both on the road and in the classroom," said Steve Dowling, Director, Enterprise Safety and Training.
